THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

- Does the word “displacement” relate to us?
 - Are we displaced?
 - Do we know ourselves?
 - Do we know where we are going?
- Do we know where we want to end up?

WORKSHOP IDEA – PART ONE

I want to create something imaginative, creative and something that everyone can contribute to.

Firstly there will be multiple categories, for example, who, what, where, when, how and why. Each one of us as individuals will be given a category at random and with this we will let our imagination run wild.

EXAMPLES

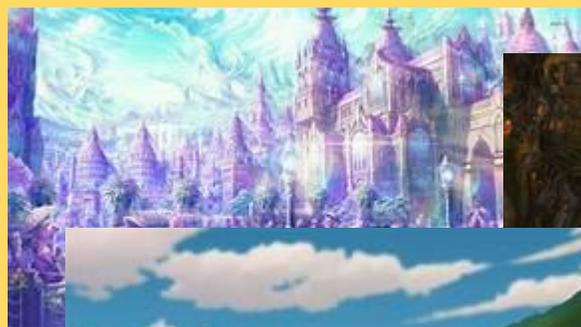

Who – can write about yourself, about someone you know or a completely made up person. Come up with your own character.

What – what's happening in this displaced place, what is this made up character doing. Come up with a plot like idea.

Where – where is this displaced place based, talk about the setting, can be completely made up.

When – what period are we in, can be past or present, could be a completely made up date.

WHERE ARE WE?

PART TWO

Once we have our base for our imaginary displaced place, we will then brainstorm as a group or individually about our title, what should our displaced place be called?

After our brainstorming, we will have a look and talk about what we have all come up with, each person can take turns to discuss their imaginative ideas. Hopefully doing this will give us an overall idea about our displaced place.

PART THREE

With our final ideas, we will then spend the reminding time of the class to go away individually in the creative arts room and respond creatively to our ideas as a whole.

Examples of what you can do to respond; write a poem about the character, or place in our fantasy world

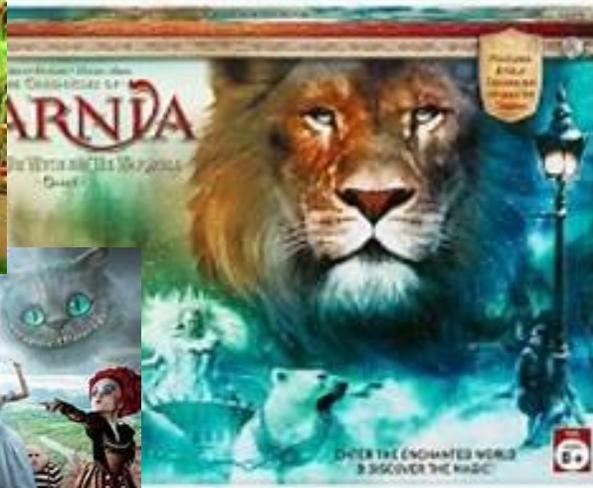

Can produce a short story about our fantasy world

Can design and create the characters (a character profile)

Can draw what you picture the area to look like

YOU CAN CREATE ANYTHING

WHAT INSPIRED THIS?

PART FOUR – THE FINAL

After our creative interpretation, we will then come together as a group again and share our thoughts and ideas and the work that we have created, these can then either go home with you or possibly be displayed around the creative arts room.

I am hoping with this workshop we can create a further sense of imagination, and to feel like a child again by making up a completely new place, person and idea.

Thankyou for listening.
